1) The General Secretary is at present an ex officio member of the Insurance Committee. The work is in itself nothing much to speak of; but it necessitates my going through a bagful of insurance papers nearly every other day, & this operates as a distraction from more important work. I request therefore that I may be relieved of it. [When I mooted the subject yesterday at the Council meeting, both the Dewan and the Financial Councillor (President of the Insurance Committee) accepted the reasonableness of my request.]
